Penn State Homecoming Announces 2014 Homecoming Court

The members of the 2014 Student and University Courts were revealed today via social media.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (Sept. 10, 2014) — The members of the 2014 Homecoming Court were crowned today. Each individual chosen for the Student and University were revealed via social media shortly after they were visited in their classroom or office for a “court crash.”

Each Court consists of five males and five females. The Student Court is comprised of outstanding graduating 2015 seniors and the University Court consists of faculty or staff members.

The members of the Student Court are:

- Tori Waldner
- Kelechi Acholonu
- Kenya Crawford
- Marielena Balouris
- Emily Zheng
- Kevin Bunce
- Ricky Kopecky
- Ryan Henrici
- Ben Kline
- Anand Ganjam

The members of the University Court are:

- John Waters
- Joseph Selden
- Geoff Halberstadt
- Moses Davis
- Vernon Carraway
- Daquina Johnson
- Cathleen Hunt
- Lindsey Zapletal
- Dina Liberatore
- Erica Walsh

“Members of the court are well rounded, spirited Penn Staters who excel in academics, community service, campus involvement, and leadership,” Paisley Muller, Royalty Director, explains. “The Homecoming Courts are pristine representations of their category to inspire other students and faculty to get involved around campus.”

The Court will participate in all Homecoming events and represent the Penn State community all throughout Homecoming week. Nominations for the Homecoming King and Queen will occur during Homecoming week. The King and Queen will be announced at halftime of the Homecoming football game. Homecoming week begins Sept. 21 and concludes Sept. 27.

About Us

Penn State Homecoming is a student-run organization with aims to celebrate tradition and instill pride in all members of the Penn State family through active engagement of students, alumni, faculty and staff across the community. Our organization is comprised of many student volunteers who donate their time to creating a multitude of events that make the Homecoming celebration a yearlong event.
