Penn State Names 2019 Executive Committee

Homecoming 2019 Executive Director, Isabella Webster, announces the Homecoming 2019 Executive Committee

UNIVERSITY PARK, PA. (November 16, 2018) — Penn State Homecoming was excited to announce the 2019 Executive Committee on Friday November 16, 2018. These individuals will be responsible for the planning and execution of all aspects leading up to the 100th Homecoming Celebration in 2019.

The 2019 Penn State Homecoming Executive Committee is comprised of fourteen (14) Directors. These Directors lead their individual Captain committees and together work year round to lead Homecoming's nearly 300 student volunteers. Throughout the year, Directors plan and organize all Homecoming events and are vital to the success of Penn State Homecoming's Celebration.

The Executive Committee was chosen by Homecoming 2019 Executive Director, Isabella Webster, who was appointed in October. After a multi-week application and interview process, Isabella is thrilled to begin planning for Penn State Homecoming 2019. "This group has inspired me tremendously through their applications and interviews. They have taught me so much already, and I am beyond thrilled to have the opportunity to work them to put on the 100th Homecoming Celebration in 2019," said Webster.

Webster continued, "The 2019 Executive Committee demonstrates unparalleled passion and enthusiasm for Homecoming's mission. They exemplify Penn State's core values of integrity, respect, responsibility, community, and excellence in their actions every day. I cannot wait to see what they accomplish this year!"
