Penn State Homecoming Announces Plan for Fall Events

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (July 31, 2020) — Penn State Homecoming is currently working in conjunction with the University on plans for our fall programming. As of this time, we are hoping to host in-person events during the week of October 11-17th and will also be providing virtual engagement opportunities for all members of the community to celebrate remotely in conjunction with our live events. Penn State Homecoming is working hard within the organization and with members of the University to ensure all Homecoming events adhere to CDC, University, and Pennsylvania state guidelines regarding the COVID-19 pandemic. We are looking forward to continuing to engage with the Penn State community this fall and cannot wait to celebrate Homecoming 2020 with you! Please keep an eye on our social media and website, homecoming.psu.edu, over the next few weeks for more detailed announcements and updates regarding upcoming events.

About Penn State Homecoming

Penn State Homecoming is a student-run organization that aims to celebrate tradition and instill pride in all members of the Penn State family through active engagement of students, alumni, faculty and staff across the community. Our organization is comprised of many student volunteers who donate their time to creating a multitude of events that make the Homecoming celebration a yearlong event.
