

Open Apology for the #LeaveYourPSULegacy Roundtable

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (April 23, 2020) – As an organization, Penn State Homecoming would like to apologize for the events that occurred during our #LeaveYourPSULegacy Roundtable Zoom event. During this event, Penn State Homecoming was a victim of Zoom-bombing. We are currently addressing this issue through Penn State IT, and through the proper channels to report and address this misbehavior. Penn State Homecoming does not condone this type of material or behaviors that were witnessed today. We apologize to those who were directly affected and impacted by these behaviors. Penn State Homecoming aims to create a space that is safe, inclusive, and welcoming to all participants. If you feel the need for any additional support, please utilize the following resources:

Gender Equity Center:

Hours:

Monday-Friday

8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Phone: 814-863-2027

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS):

Hours:

Monday-Friday

8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Phone: 814-863-0395

Crisis Services (24/7)

Penn State Crisis Line:

1-877-229-6400

Crisis Text Line:

Text “LIONS” to 741741

About Penn State Homecoming

Penn State Homecoming is a student - run organization that aims to celebrate tradition and instill pride in all members of the Penn State family through active engagement of students, alumni, faculty and staff across the community. Our organization is comprised of many student volunteers who donate their time to creating a multitude of events that make the Homecoming celebration a yearlong event.