Penn State Homecoming Announces Executive Director for 2021

UNIVERSITY PARK, PA. (Oct. 28, 2020) — Penn State Homecoming is excited to announce senior, Dom Rullo, as the Executive Director for Homecoming 2021. This announcement follows the celebration of Penn State’s 101th Homecoming.

Rullo (senior, materials sciences and engineering major) served as the OPPerations Director for Homecoming 2020. During his time in this position, Rullo was responsible for planning the logistics of set-up and tear down of all Penn State Homecoming events, as well as lead a committee of ten captains.

The selection of the Homecoming Executive Director includes an application and interview process. Once applications were submitted and reviewed, candidates were interviewed by Penn State Homecoming staff advisors as well as the 2020 Executive Director, Julia Greco, Outreach Officer, Isaac Messner, and Logistics Officer, Zach Wertz. After interviews were completed, the advisors, officers and Greco deliberated and ultimately selected the Homecoming 2021 Executive Director.

“Dom has consistently blown me away in everything he has done within Homecoming over the past two year,” says Greco. “His vision for the future of this organization will build upon the legacy of the past 101 years, and I am truly so proud and thrilled to watch all that he will accomplish in the role of Executive Director over the next year.”

As Executive Director, Rullo will work to facilitate the establishment of a specific vision for Penn State Homecoming during the 2020-2021 term. He will lead the Executive Committee in all logistical planning of Homecoming’s year-long celebration. One of the first tasks that Rullo will take on in his role is selecting the 2021 Officers and Executive Committee. Homecoming Outreach Officer and Logistics Officer applications remain open until Friday, October 30, 2020 at 5pm. Homecoming Executive Committee applications will open November 6, 2020 and remain open until November 13, 2020 at 5pm.
