PENN STATE HOMECOMING ENCOURAGES STUDENT PARADE REGISTRATION

Homecoming Parade is Scheduled for Oct. 22

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. Sept. 15, 2021 — Penn State Homecoming is looking for student organizations of all sizes to register for the Homecoming parade that takes place the evening before the Homecoming game against the University of Illinois on Saturday, Oct. 23.

The deadline to register an organization for the parade is Friday, Sept. 17 at 5 p.m. through the Penn State Homecoming website. The cost to register is $50 and includes a banner for your organization to decorate. If participation cost is a financial hardship, please contact paradehomecoming@psu.edu.

“We want to showcase all that Penn State Students are passionate about and give opportunities for groups to put their name out there,” said Rachael Savio, the Parade Director for Penn State Homecoming. “As a student who has walked in the parade as part of a student group myself, I can agree that the joy and attention that these groups get is unmatched at any other PSU event!”

This will be the first in-person parade since the 2019 Homecoming. The 2020 Homecoming parade was held virtually due to covid restrictions. The 2021 Homecoming parade will give organizations the opportunity to publicize themselves while participating directly in Homecoming activities. If you have any questions, please email studentparade@psu.edu.

The Executive Committee for Homecoming continues to monitor state and local guidelines for COVID-19 and is dedicated to hosting the best possible Homecoming experience while ensuring the safety of the Penn State community.

About Us

Penn State Homecoming is a student-run organization with aims to celebrate tradition and instill pride in all members of the Penn State family through active engagement of students, alumni, faculty, and staff across the community. Our organization is comprised of many student volunteers who donate their time to creating a multitude of events that make the Homecoming celebration a yearlong event.
